A San Diego, California native, Gary grew up in and around Petersburg, Virginia, living amidst Civil War forts and artifacts. He received a BA, magna cum laude, in English Literature from the University of Virginia (Wise) and a Juris Doctorate from the College of William and Mary. He also completed two years of graduate studies in Mass Communication at the University of Tennessee.

Gary practiced law in the Culpeper area and in 1992 was elected Commonwealth's Attorney. For 20 years he served in that position before retiring. He developed an interest in genealogy which in turn led to an interest in Civil War history having discovered he is the descendent of three Union soldiers. One fought in the Battle of the Wilderness.

Besides his careers in journalism and law, Gary is an avid artist. His work is in the collection of the Culpeper County Museum and in the homes in Europe and the US. He is the author of "Breakout: The Roswell Legacy". Gary met his wife Linda during college, and they married a year after graduating and have two children.

PETER KOLAKOWSKI (2023)

Peter was born in Manhattan, New York City and grew up in St. James, Long Island, New York. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and political science from Ripon College, Ripon, Wisconsin and a Master of Public Administration from American University. Peter was a resident of Fredericksburg from 1972 until he moved to Wisconsin several years ago.

Over his 40-year public service career, Peter first served in the U.S. Army for five years, then six years in executive management positions with the City of Fredericksburg, the last four as City Manager. He then worked in executive positions for VDOT for 15 years. His last 14 years, before retirement, was with the U.S. Navy at Naval Surface Warfare Center-Dahlgren Division as department head for operations.

From the President

My first year as president, and the organization's 26th in existence, has been an eventful one. It was humbling to take over an organization with the fantastic national reputation that FoWB has for preserving, protecting and educating within and outside of the battlefield. The year was not without challenges, with the Park Service turning over their top three positions in the Park, and no formal agreement with the Park in place. However, with hard work and patience by all concerned, the year can certainly be considered a success. While attendance was less than it has been in years past, the lack of a Ranger at Saunders' Field will take a period of adjustment for visitors. Additionally, we spent much of the year under a mask mandate, did not interpret a full year and had no programs.

You will see by our financial report that we are sound in that area. That is largely due to several bequeaths from deceased former Board of Directors and several generous donations from current members at large. While we are financially sound, our membership has suffered a decline and rebuilding that base will be an area of focus in the coming year. We will hold some member only events to keep our current membership up and sponsor tours for non-members to attract new members.

Additionally we need to recruit more interpreters. We scrapped by this year thanks to the dedication of our work force, both interpretation and maintenance. However, without increased numbers I fear folks will burn out and lose interest. Recruitment is the key. The good news is previous interpreters have expressed an interest in returning to the force and we had several folks sign up at the Orange Street Fair. We annually solicit membership at the Fair in all areas of the organization but particularly for our Heritage program.

We are attempting to migrate our membership correspondence to an email format. While some folks will still require mailed correspondence we think the savings will be significant enough to warrant the change. This will bring us in line with most other non-profit organizations.

A special thank you to the Ground Force. Det Wilkins and his crew always have the grounds looking immaculate but they were particularly stressed this year with several major storms creating havoc. Also recognition goes to the Board of Directors for their time and effort in making the organization go. Without the dedication of the committee chairs and the members of those committees, the organization would grind to a halt. We not only had turn over at the Park but FoWB had four new Board members and a new leadership team for 2022. With that much turnover it is always difficult that first year but I think we have a strong foundation to build on as we head into our next chapter.

Looking forward to 2023, we have a slate of projects we are excited about sharing with the new leadership within the Park. We hope to expand the trail network around the Battlefield and have additional signage installed to enhance the visitor's experience. We presented our first scholarship this year to a local high school student and sponsored two interns for the Park to help them with an anticipated manpower shortage. We want to continue and expand our research efforts in several areas.

Other possible projects include helping the Park overhaul their library to make it more user friendly. We have also talked about creating a movie for Ellwood, something which most visitor centers have. We also think the addition of historically accurate figures in the Warren Room would enhance the experience for visitors. Not everyone agrees with that approach but certainly worth discussing.

Lastly I want to thank our members and donors. Without your support we would not have had 2,437 visitors and 1,696 volunteer hours this year. Please let us know you are a member when you visit Ellwood and look for an email inviting you to a special member's only tour later this year or early next year at the latest. Feel free to email me any time. Bob Lookabill

Ruth Pavlik (Three Year Term 2024)

A native of suburban Pittsburgh, PA, Ruth graduated from Clarion (PA) University with a BS in Elementary Education. However, the majority of her professional life was spent in the field of volunteer administration. For the 14 years prior to her 2015 retirement, she was the Volunteer Coordinator for Hospice of the Rapidan (now Hospice of the Piedmont) in Culpeper.

Ruth has made Virginia her home for almost all of her adult life--beginning in Arlington, with two stops in Fairfax County, then Warrenton, and finally moving into her current home in Lake of the Woods in 2005. When planning her life after retirement, FoWB was at the top of her list of prospective volunteer opportunities. She serves as an interpreter, is Coordinator of the Junior Ranger Program and is a member of several Committees. Ruth also volunteers at the Orange County Visitors Center and does clerical work for LOWLINC, a senior citizen assistance group. In addition to volunteering, she is an avid sports fan, especially football and baseball, loves to read, do needlework, and travel. Ruth is the mother of two daughters and grandmother of four.

Six years later while working for the NPS he received his Master of Science degree from Shippensburg University in Pennsylvania.

Greg has trained hundreds of seasonal employees, interns and volunteers on researching and conducting interpretive programs. Greg conducted numerous tours as well as authored many Civil War articles for numerous national publications. FoWB Annual Membership Meeting Minutes for the Saturday, 13 November 2021 session.

President Leach called the meeting to order at 11:00 AM. Acting Secretary McDonald announced a quorum was present and attendance was 64 members. The 2020 minutes and the 2021 financial statement were approved.

President Leach presented highlights from the year. He stated he was pleased with the financial state of the organization and membership was at 220 members. He mentioned that at the Park's request we had six folks receive background investigations. This required filling out forms and traveling to Shenandoah Park to be electronically fingerprinted. He mentioned the new website which he hoped would be active in January 2022. President Leach then announced his retirement as president, but agreed to stay one additional year on the Board.

Superintendent Kirsten Talken-Spaulling spoke to the meeting, covering changes to the Park system and that with thoughtful planning our partnership will continue to endure.

Director Kolakowski moved that the slate of new Board members, Stephanie Bianchi, Joe Lafleur, Greg Mertz, and returning members Baxter, Pavlik, and Slunt be accepted. That motion was seconded and unanimously approved. Director Epp made presentations to new Heritage Program inductees and presented some membership pins to interpreters.

President Leach adjourned the meeting at 1215.

Joe was born in Montgomery County, MD. His schooling through junior college was in Darnestown. After three summers in Spain, a few university courses and various certifications, Joe was led to Northern Virginia construction management jobs. Years of managing large commercial construction projects and contracting residential jobs ended in frequent work and falling in love with the Wilderness. He and his wife Katy bought their home on the Battlefield in 2005, piquing his interest to explore and study the area.

Walking his dog at Ellwood Joe met the Grounds Force and began working with them. He began as an interpreter at Ellwood in 2015 and also took over FoWB's stewardship of the Wilderness Tract. Joe monitors and maintains the property for public use, mainly from Boy and Girl Scout camping.

Ellwood Committee Report

Don Shockey - Chair

Visitors for 2022 totaled 2,437. Volunteer interpreter hours totaled 1,696.

While we opened to the public later than usual this year, we did receive Park training and added four new interpreters to the force. It is difficult to assess the impact of the pandemic on attendance but it is safe to say the mask mandate alone caused some folks to not enter the house. The lack of special programs on the property also contributed to the lower numbers although it is difficult to place an exact number due to that issue. We also had a shortened season, opening on 9 May and closing 9 October. We hope to increase our number of interpreters in the coming year and return our “newbie” training regime to the program.

Battlefield Resources Committee Report

Kevin Hunt - Chair

Det Wilkins, Ellwood site chair

Battlefield Ground Force (BGF) continued to provide outstanding upkeep to the grounds and several associated Wilderness Battlefield grounds. Work is performed year round with a major emphasis this year on clearing dead fall from the various storms we have endured. Park Day was cancelled again this year, the downed trees making it unsafe for volunteers. A special thank you to Joe Lafleur for maintaining and stewarding the Wilderness Tract for FoWB. All required reports were filed with the State.

Communications Committee Report

Beth Stenstrom - Chair

The chair co-administers the Facebook page and the Constant Contact account which has over 1,200 contacts. The committee also sends out a most impressive newsletter four times a year and handles press releases in coordination with the Park and special use permits when required.

The Governance Committee is always looking for new members from the general membership. If you think you might be interested please contact Pete Kolakowski and he can provide details.

Lynn now resides in Orange County. She has one son, Zach, living in Northern VA and extended family in the area.

Membership Committee Report

Bob Lookabill/Beth Stenstrom - Co-Chairs

With the retirement of Milbrey Bartholow, Bob and Beth have tried to keep membership afloat until a permanent replacement can be found. We notify members when renewals are due. Our membership continues to decline, a problem faced by most non-profits we have spoken to. Regenerating membership will be a major focus going forward in 2023 as well as finding a permanent chairperson.

Heritage Committee Report

Bob Lookabill - Acting Chairman

Unfortunately, due to personal reasons, Dan Sheron was forced to resign as chairman. A new chairperson will be appointed in 2023. The Heritage program has added at least six new members and has a few in the pipeline. Membership in the Heritage program honors a relative who served in the military at the Wilderness or a civilian relative who had some affiliation with Ellwood. The Staff will assist you in researching and preparing your package. Bob Epp would be your point of contact at Ellwood via the website.

Education and Outreach Committee

Currently Vacant

The Outreach chair resigned late in the year as we had little activity without a signed agreement with the Park. They did coordinate a fantastic program featuring retired Park historian John Hennessey. John's talk was titled "War to Utter Submission" and concerned the local area after the Civil War ended. It was held at the Fawn Lake Country Club and was very well attended. The History in Our Backyard series, headed up by editor Mike Mikoloskos, continues to provide interesting and informative historical articles for various publications in the local area.

Program Committee

Currently Vacant

The once robust FoWB programs committee fell victim to the lack of a signed agreement with the Park. We usually sponsor about 8 activities throughout the year highlighted by a Battle of the Wilderness Anniversary program. We hope to resume these programs once the agreement is signed.
